BOOKS

RECEIVED BY THE

AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY

FROM THE LIBRARY OF THE LATE GEORGE BRINLEY.

---

UNDOUBTEDLY the most valuable gift of books to the Antiquarian Society, since that of its founder, Isaiah Thomas, is that lately received from the heirs of the late George Brinley of Hartford, Conn. The circumstances attending this generous gift will be best understood by reading the following letter from the administrators of Mr. Brinley's estate :—

HARTFORD, CONN., Feb. 24, 1879.

TO THE HON. STEPHEN SALISBURY, LL.D.,

President of the American Antiquarian Society.

DEAR SIR:—The late Mr. George Brinley of Hartford, when he decided that his American Library should be sold by auction, intended to give certain institutions and societies, which he designated, the opportunity of obtaining at the sale, free of cost, such of his books as they should respectively select for their libraries to the value in the aggregate of twenty-five thousand dollars.

Though this intention was not expressed in Mr. Brinley's last will, and his widow's purpose to ratify the gifts by a formal bequest was defeated by her decease intestate, his and her children take pleasure in giving the intention effect, and you are hereby informed that the American Antiquarian Society is authorized to bid off, at the sales of the Brinley Library, books for the library of the Society to the amount of five thousand dollars ($5,000), and that one-half of this amount—or a less proportion, at your option—may be so taken from the First Part of the Library, which is to be sold in New York, on the tenth day of March next and days following, by Messrs. Geo. A. Leavitt & Co., auctioneers. A copy of the sale-catalogue is herewith forwarded to you.

As soon as practicable after the sale you will please furnish us with a statement of the amount to which books shall have been so bid off for you, and thereupon a proper credit for this amount will be arranged for you with the auctioneers.

We are, very respectfully,

Your obed't serv'ts,

G. P. BRINLEY,
J. HAMMOND TRUMBULL,
Administrators.

To this very liberal offer, voluntarily made by the children of Mr. Brinley, to carry into effect plans formed by him, but which had not been legally completed, the following response was made in behalf of the Antiquarian Society by the President:—

[A COPY.]

AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY,
WORCESTER, Feb. 27, 1879.

GEORGE P. BRINLEY, Esq.,
J. HAMMOND TRUMBULL, LL.D.,

Administrators of the Estate of late George Brinley, Esq.

GENTLEMEN:—In behalf of the American Antiquarian Society I thankfully acknowledge your favor of 24th inst. communicating the offer of the heirs of George Brinley, Esq., to that Society of the privilege of bidding off, free of cost, at the auction of the library of Mr. Brinley, on March 10, books for the library of that Society to the amount of $5,000. The Society will avail themselves of this privilege with a deep sense of their obligation to a friend to whom they have before been repeatedly indebted. The Society fully and gratefully appreciate the wisdom of Mr. Brinley in an arrangement most favorable to the largest usefulness of his excellent collection, and the good judgment and generosity of his family in carrying out his plan.

Very respectfully yours,
STEPHEN SALISBURY.

The balance of the gift referred to in the letter of the administrators, was divided as follows: To the library of Yale College, $10,000; the Watkinson Library of Hartford, Conn., $5,000, and the New York Historical Society and Penn. Historical Society, $2,500 each.

The first part of the catalogue of the library, representing, it is supposed, about one-third of the whole collection, was promptly forwarded to the society. This catalogue, prepared by J. Hammond Trumbull, LL.D., Secretary of Foreign Correspondence of the American Antiquarian Society, is a volume of 306 pages, including over 2,600 titles, and, with the instructive notes added by the compiler, is a valuable addition to bibliographical literature.

The sale began at the rooms of Geo. A. Leavitt & Co., Clinton Hall, New York, on Monday, March 10, and continued through the week, attracting a large number of gentlemen connected with the public libraries of the country, as well as many noted individual collectors. The sale was conducted by Joseph Sabin, the veteran bookseller of Nassau street, New York.

Mr. Nathaniel Paine, the Treasurer, and Mr. Edmund M. Barton, the Assistant-Librarian, were deputed to attend the sale in behalf of the Antiquarian Society.

The additions to the library made from this source consisted of two hundred and twenty-seven books and four hundred and fifty-nine pamphlets; the latter bound in convenient size, and arranged according to subjects.

The titles given in the following list are taken from the catalogue, but are arranged in chronological instead of alphabetical order. The works of the Mathers are given by themselves after the list of general titles. Nearly all of the publications of the Mathers are handsomely bound by Bedford, Pratt, and other noted binders.

PUBLICATIONS OF THE MATHERS

IN THE LIBRARY OF THE AMERICAN ANTIQUARIAN SOCIETY PREVIOUS TO THE ADDITIONS MADE FROM THE BRINLEY SALE.

IN preparing this list, the titles have been compared with the originals, except in a few cases where, in the copies owned by the society, the title page was missing. Free use has been made of the large list of Mather publications in Sabin's valuable "Dictionary of Books Relating to America," and of the catalogue of the first part of the Brinley Library, prepared by J. Hammond Trumbull, LL.D.

The titles are given in chronological order, beginning with the works of Richard Mather of Dorchester, who was born in England, A. D. 1596, and died in Dorchester, Mass., A. D. 1669. Those of other members of the family are arranged in the following order:—(1), Samuel of Dublin, son of Richard, 1626–1671; (2), Nathanael of Dublin and London, son of Richard, 1630–1697; (3), Eleazer of Northampton, son of Richard, 1637–1669; (4), Increase of Boston, son of Richard, 1639–1723; (5), Cotton of Boston, son of Increase, 1663–1728; (6), Azariah of Saybrook, son of Samuel, of Windsor, Conn.; (7), Samuel of Boston, son of Cotton, 1706–1785; (8), Moses of Middlesex (now Darien), Conn., Yale College, 1739.

RICHARD MATHER.

Church-Government and Church-Covenant Discussed, In an Answer of the Elders of the severall Churches in New England To two and thirty Questions, sent over to them by divers Ministers in England, to declare their judgments therein. Together with an Apologie of the said Elders in New-England for Church-Covenant, sent over in Answer to Master Bernard in the year 1639. As also in an Answer to nine Positions about Church-Government. And now published for the satisfaction of all who desire resolution in those points. pp. (4), 84, (2), 78.

4<sup>o</sup> London, Printed by R. O. and G. D. for Benjamin Allen, Anno Dom., 1643.

In one of the two copies of this work in the Society's library the following in the hand-writing of Increase Mather appears on a fly leaf: "My father wrote ye Answer to ye 32 Qs Increase Mather." The "Apologie" has a separate title page and paging, and is printed by T. P. and M. S. for Benjamin Allen. On the title page of the Society's copy, Mr. Richard Mather is given as the author, in the hand-writing of Increase Mather. The "Answer of the Elders" begins with page 49, and in one copy the author is stated, in the hand-writing of Increase Mather to be Mr. Richard Mather, and in the other copy also in the same hand-writing, to be John Davenport. The Society also have a manuscript transcript of the "Answer to the Nine Positions" by John Fernside, dated 1639. There is nothing in the manuscript itself to indicate that it was not original with Fernside, the word "transcript" being in another hand, apparently that of Increase Mather.

Sm. 8° Boston, in N. E., Printed by S. Kneeland, for B. Eliot, S. Gerrish, D. Henchman, and J. Edwards, and Sold at their Shops,

"In this singular publication, which is a close translation of the Hebrew, Dr. Mather has not only disregarded the modern practice of breaking the lines, whether rhymed or not, but he has run out (to use a printer's phrase) the whole matter; so that while each psalm looks exactly like prose, and may be read as such, it is, in fact, modulated so that it may be sung as lyric verse. The learned Doctor says that in the 'twice seven versions' which he has seen, the authors 'put in as large an Heap of poor Things, which, are intirely their own,—merely for the sake of preserving the Clink of the Rhyme; Which after all is of small consequence unto a Generous Poem; and of none at all unto the Melody of Singing.'"

MATHER MANUSCRIPTS.

In addition to printed works of the Mather family in the library of the Society, there is also a large and valuable collection of their manuscripts, including treatises, sermons, diaries, interleaved almanacs, letters and memoranda. It would require much more time to prepare a complete catalogue of this interesting matter than the compiler can give to it; he must therefore content himself with a few of the more important titles.

In the hand-writing of Richard Mather is the original draft of the Cambridge Platform. Also

“Answer of the Elders to certain doubts and objections against sundry passages in y<sup>e</sup> platform of Discipline agreed upon by y<sup>e</sup> late Synod.” (Oct. 26, 1635.)

“Answers to Arguments for the Government of the Church to be in the hands of the People.” 1644.

“Observations and Arguments respecting the Government of Christian Churches.” 1650.

“Answers to twenty-one questions from the General Court at Hartford to the General Court at Boston. 1657.”

Of Increase Mather's may be mentioned his Autobiography, written for his children.

“Testimony against Several profane and superstitious customs prevalent in New-England.”

(This was printed in 1687.)

“Sermons for the Sacrament.” 1713—1719.

Interleaved Almanacs, with manuscript notes, from 1660 to 1721, also sermons and letters.

In the hand-writing of Cotton Mather, are a large number of treatises, sermons, letters, diaries and memoranda. Of these the following are probably of the most interest:

“A Brand Pluck'd out of the Burning.”

This is an account of Mercy Short who suffered from Witchcraft, of whom mention is made in "Another Brand Pluck't out of the Burning, or, More Wonders of the Invisible World."

"The Angel of Bethesda, or some Remarks on the grand Cause of Sickness." (This was printed in 1722).

"The Best of Blessings,—Real and Vital Piety defended and assisted in six brief essays, &c."

"The Lord in the Garden."

"One Among the Myrtle trees. A Brief & plain Essay on Good Services to be done by people in low stations."

"The New Heavens Opened."

"Where to find Gog and Magog."

"The New Earth Surveyed."

"When shall those things be? When the Grand Revolution to be look'd for!"

"The Ancient Gospel." 26 d. 6 m. 1688.

Five "Sacramental Discourses on the name of y<sup>e</sup> Lord Jesus Christ." 1689.

"A Day of Prayer Kept by the North Church for Discussion about y<sup>e</sup> calling of a Minister." 2 d. 8 m. 1717.

"Triparadisus. Essays on, I. The paradise of the old world enriched with some instructive illustrations on the Sacred Geography. II. The Paradise of Departed Spirits fortified with well attested Relations to demonstrate as well as illustrate the state of such. III. The Paradise of the New Earth under the influences of the New Heavens."

"A Discourse concerning Congregational Churches."

"The Observations and Reflections of the Rev. Dr. Cotton Mather concerning Witchcraft. 1692."

"A Declaration of the Oppressed Bretheren in the South part of Boston."

"Letter to the Bretheren of the Church at New Haven, 20th 4 m. 1715."

"Letter proposing an address to the New King." (Geo. I).

"Letter respecting the appointing of a Chaplain at the Castle." Nov. 7, 1716.

"Letter concerning the call of Mr. Fisk to the New South Church, Boston."

Among the manuscripts of Samuel Mather of Boston, are :

“Disquisition concerning the most Holy Duty in which it is endeavoured to communicate the Scriptural Doctrine concerning God, and His Manifestation to His Intelligent Creatures, &c. In 12 chapters.”

The Song. The Very Songs. To Shelomoh, or Solomon himself, the Prince of Peace: or An Honest Attempt to translate and explain the same with desirable Truth & Fidelity.”

“Scriptural Philosophy. An Attempt to show That the Right Principles of Natural Philosophy are contained in the Sacred Writings. By one of the Academy of Arts and Sciences in the Massachusetts Commonwealth.”

A D D E N D A .

SINCE the "List of Books" was printed, the second part of the Brinley Library has been sold in New York, the auction occurring March 22, 1880, and the three following days. At this sale, the Antiquarian Society had a credit of $1250 in addition to a small balance from the credit at the first, enabling them to add to their collections one hundred and ninety-two books, and one hundred and fourteen pamphlets.

Sm. folio.

The Pennsylvania Packet and Daily Advertiser: April 14th—Dec. 30th, 1785 (Nos. 1931-2154). folio, J. Dunlap & D. C. Claypoole.

M. T. Cicero's Cato Major, or his Discourse of Old-Age: With Explanatory Notes. pp. viii, 159, rubricated title.

8° Philadelphia, B. Franklin, 1744.

A fine copy, with the autograph of President Thomas Clap, of Yale College, "dono D. Benj. Franklin, 1746." Measures 7½ by 4½ inches.

Gospel Order Revived, Being an Answer to a Book lately set forth by the Reverend Mr. Increase Mather, President of Harvard College, &c. Entitled, The Order of the Gospel, &c. By sundry Ministers of the Gospel in New-England. 5 prelim. leaves, pp. 40.

4° n. p. [New York, Wm. Bradford,] 1700.

For the history of the book, see THOMAS'S Hist. of Printing, II. 90, and 458-66, and SIBLEY'S Harvard Graduates, I. 455.

Keith (George.) The Presbyterian and Independent Visible Churches in New-England and Else-where, Brought to the Test,... with a Call and Warning from the Lord to the People of Boston and New-England, to Repent, &c. And two Letters to the Preachers in Boston; and an Answer to the gross Abuses, Lyes and Slanders of Increase Mather and Nath. Morton, &c., 5 prelim. leaves, pp. 230.

Sm. 8° London, Thomas Northcott, 1691.

Several scarce local histories and valuable volumes relating to the American Revolution were also obtained.

The Mather publications added to the library were as follows:—

Mather (Cotton). Reasonable Religion: or, the Truths of the Christian Religion demonstrated. With the Religion of the Closet, and Family Religion Urged. Preface, by Rev. Dr. [Daniel] Williams, pp. (20), 136.

12° London, 1713.

From the Boston edition of 1700.

Mather (Cotton). The Wonders of the Invisible World: being an Account of the Tryals of Several Witches, lately executed in New-England: And of several remarkable Curiosities therein Occurring. Together with, I. Observations upon the Nature, the Number, and the Operations of the Devils. II. A short Narrative of a late outrage committed by a knot of Witches in Swede-Land, [etc]. III. Some Councils directing a due Improvement of the Terrible things lately done: in New-England. IV. A Brief Discourse upon those Temptations which are the more ordinary Devices of Satan. By Cotton Mather. Published by the special command, [etc.]

4° Printed first, at Bostun; repr. at London, for John Dunton, 1693.

This is the first (and only complete) London edition. The last page (before the leaf of "Advertisements") is numbered 98, but the pagination is irregular, the number of pages being in fact, 106, exclusive of the three preliminary leaves not numbered. The leaf which in some copies precedes the Title, containing a Half-Title, and copy of the "Imprimatur," is wanting.

Mather (Increase). A Further Account of the Tryals of the New-England Witches. To which is added, Cases of Conscience concerning Witchcrafts and Evil Spirits, by Increase Mather, President of Harvard Colledge. (with a Postscript.), pp. (2), 10, (4), 39, (5).

4<sup>o</sup> London, for John Dunton, 1693.

The first part of the work (pp. 1-10) is Deodat Lawson's "True Narrative" etc., taken from Cotton Mather's "Wonders of the Invisible World."

Jennings (David). An Abridgment of the Life of the late Reverend and Learned Dr. Cotton Mather... Recommended by I. Watts, D. D., pp. xii, (4), 144.

12<sup>o</sup> London, 1744.

A volume, by Samuel Mather, Pastor of the Church at Windsor, Conn., has also been added to the Library, entitled :

Two Discourses by the late Reverend Mr. Samuel Mather, Pastor of the Church at Windsor.—I. A dead Faith anatomized. II. The Self-Justiciary, convicted and condemned. pp. (2) 108 (1) 82.

12<sup>o</sup> Boston, Re-Printed by J. Draper, for D. Henchman, Cornhill.
MDCCXL.

On page 50 of the list the author of the three first named books should have been stated as Samuel Mather of Witney.
